ANSWER OF ARVINMERITOR, INC., PUROLATOR PRODUCTS NA, LLC, AND PUROLATOR PRODUCTS COMPANY, LLC
TO THE FIRST AMENDED QUI TAM COMPLAINT BY WILLIAM G. BURCH

Defendant ArvinMeritor Inc. (“ArvinMeritor”) and Defendants Purolator Products NA, LLC and Purolator Products Company, LLC (collectively “Purolator”), by undersigned counsel, jointly respond as follows to the allegations contained in the First Amended Qui Tam Complaint (“Complaint”) filed on November 24, 2010 by William G. Burch (“Plaintiff”):

INTRODUCTION

1. This action is based partly on evidence of an antitrust conspiracy to fix prices between and among the largest manufacturers of light duty air, oil, and fuel filters (“Filters”). That price fixing conspiracy is the subject of private class actions, which this Court has determined sufficient [sic] state claims for relief under federal antitrust laws.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that certain actions are pending in this Court against manufacturers of light duty aftermarket vehicle oil, fuel and engine air filters sold in the United States (“Filters”). ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that the Court has issued various decisions in In re: Aftermarket Filters Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1957, and state that those decisions speak for themselves. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 1.

2. At the same time that the Defendants conspired to fix prices for these Filters they also: (a) concealed their conspiracy from the United States and from the States, and (b) submitted, and caused to be submitted, false and fraudulent claims for payment to the United States and the States and submitted false statements in support of such claims to the United States and the States. Consequently, these entities paid inflated prices for the Filters and obtained and maintained contracts they would not have otherwise received and/or would have been terminated had the federal and state governments learned of the price fixing.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 2 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 2.

3. This action seeks damages and penalties under the False Claims Act ("FCA") and comparable State laws based on false claims the Defendants submitted or caused to be submitted; false statements these Defendants made in support of such false claims; and the Defendants conspiratorial acts to violate the FCA and comparable State laws.

ANSWER: Paragraph 3 contains no factual allegations and therefore does not require a response. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 3.

4. The Complaint provides many examples of contracts the Defendants had with the United States and the States, and of claims and evidence of claims submitted by, and caused to be submitted by, the Defendants to these entities. Although not exclusive, these lists of contracts and claims are extensive; they also are representative of the Filter contracts that the Defendants had with the United States and the States, and the Filter claims they submitted and caused to be submitted while they colluded to fix the prices for these Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 4 regarding contracts and claims of other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 4.

5. The Complaint also explains why and how the Defendants knew that their prices and claims were false, and how Defendants knowingly certified that they were not engaged in price-fixing, when they were doing just that. Thus, Mr. Burch's allegations of the "who, what, when, where, and why" of these claims establish not only that Defendants might plausibly have submitted, and caused to be submitted, false claims and statements in support of claims; instead, they demonstrate that the Defendants did submit and cause to be submitted false claims and false statements in support of claims while also engaging in a conspiracy to defraud federal and state taxpayers. The damages to the United States and the States stemming from the Defendants' actions are substantial, though yet to be determined.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 5 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 5.

SUMMARY OF CLAIMS

6. Plaintiff brings this action to recover damages, civil penalties, and other relief, arising from (a) false claims Defendants made, or caused to be made, (b) false certifications and representations Defendants made in support of false claims, and (c) Defendants' conspiracy to make false claims.

ANSWER: Paragraph 6 contains no factual allegations and therefore does not require a response. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 6.

7. Each of these acts violates the FCA, 31 U.S.C. § 3729, et seq.; the California False Claims Act, Cal. Gov. Code § 12650, et seq.; the Delaware False Claims and Reporting Act, Del. Code Ann. tit. 6, § 1201, et seq.; the District of Columbia False Claims Act, D.C. Code § 2-308.13, et seq.; the Florida False Claims Act, Fla. Stat. § 68.081, et seq.; the Hawaii False Claims Act, Hawaii Rev. Stat. § 661-21, et seq.; the Illinois False Claims Act, 740 Ill. Comp. Stat. 175/1, et seq.; the Indiana State False Claims Act, Ind. Code § 5-11-5.5-1, et seq.; the Massachusetts False Claims Act, Mass. Gen. Laws 12 § 5A, et seq.; the Minnesota False Claims Act, Minn. Stat. § 15C.01, et seq.; the Montana False Claims Act, Mont. Code Ann. § 17-8-401, et seq.; the Nevada False Claims Act, Nev. Rev. Code Ann. § 4-18-101, et seq.; and the Virginia Fraud Against Taxpayers Act, Va. Code Ann. § 8.01-216.1, et seq. (collectively the "State FCAs").

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 7 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 7.

8. Defendants are the largest manufacturers and sellers of light vehicle aftermarket air, oil, and fuel filters. For years, the Defendants and their co-conspirators have conspired to unlawfully eliminate competition among themselves and to fix, raise, maintain, and/or stabilize prices, and to coordinate the allocation of customers, for Filters in the United States. Their illegal activities, violating Section 1 of the Sherman Act, began on or around March 1, 1999 and continue to the present ("Time Period").

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator manufactured and sold light duty aftermarket vehicle oil, fuel and engine air filters sold in the United States. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 8 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 8.

9. The unlawful, anticompetitive conspiracy of Defendants and their co-conspirators included, but was not limited to, in-person meetings, telephone calls, facsimiles, and other communications.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 9 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 9.

10. Throughout the Time Period, Defendants' unlawful conduct depressed competition and caused Filters to sell at artificially-inflated prices. As a result, retailers, consumers, the United States, and the States have consistently overpaid for Filters. This action seeks recovery for all Filters purchased by the United States and the States during the Time Period.

ANSWER: The last sentence of paragraph 10 contains no factual allegations and therefore does not require a response. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in the last sentence of paragraph 10.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 10.

11. Throughout the Time Period, the United States and the States entered various contracts with Defendants and their subsidiaries or distributors to purchase Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 11 regarding actions by other Defendants and other entities, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 11.

12. Every time the United States or the States paid a claim associated with Defendants' Filters during the Time Period, that claim was false and fraudulent because the prices were artificially inflated.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 12 regarding actions by other Defendants and other entities, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 12.

13. Moreover, each time any Defendant entered into a contract with the United States, renewed a contract, extended a contract, or modified its terms, as well as on other occasions, it certified that its prices were independent, (i.e., not the product of an antitrust price-fixing conspiracy). Defendants made similar certifications both explicitly and implicitly when they entered into, renewed, and extended contracts with the States, as well as on other occasions in their dealings with the States. These certifications were false statements in support of false claims.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 13 regarding actions by other Defendants and other entities, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 13.

14. Each time a Defendant submitted an invoice for Filters under a contract, it was representing to the United States and the States that its prices were not artificially inflated. In fact, each certification and each invoice was false because the price for the filters was artificially inflated, and because the Defendants had colluded to depress competition and had artificially inflated the price of Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 14 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 14.

15. Defendants have entered contracts during the Time Period with, among others, the United States Department of Defense, other federal agencies, the States, and cities, counties and municipalities within the States. The FCA, and the State FCAs, prohibit Defendants' conduct and allow the United States, the States, and cities, counties and municipalities, to recover their damages, including statutory penalties and attorneys' fees.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 15 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. The allegations in the second sentence of paragraph 15 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in the second sentence of paragraph 15. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 15.

16. Defendants' claims were false, and in violation of the FCA and the State FCAs, for three primary reasons:

- a. First, each claim submitted and paid was false because Defendants (either directly or through a distributor or subsidiary) misrepresented the true, non-inflated, price for the Filters. The price of any product is always a material term, and the United States and the States relied on the accuracy of the Filter prices in paying claims and entering contracts. If they had known of the antitrust conspiracy, they would not have purchased Defendants' Filters, and would not have paid inflated prices for them;
- b. Second, each claim Defendants, their distributors, or subsidiaries, submitted was based on false certifications that Defendants were not colluding over prices. To the extent that Defendants did not actually sign certifications with the United States or the States, the United States and the States believed that Defendants were not engaged in a price-fixing conspiracy and this was an implicit representation every time Defendants made a claim for payment on the United States or the States. If not for the false certifications, the contracts (that were premised upon these certifications) would never have been awarded, and/or would have been terminated, and the claims would never have been paid. These certifications were also material representations upon which the United States and the States relied;

- c. Third, Defendants conspired with one another to violate each of the foregoing provisions. As explained in detail herein, during the Time Period Defendants held secret meetings, made phone calls, and exchanged email and other documents to accomplish their antitrust violations.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 16 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 16 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 16.

17. Defendants knowingly:

- a. submitted, or caused to be submitted, false claims to the United States and the States, and improperly sought and obtained reimbursement that they were not entitled to;
- b. made, or caused to be made, false statements in support of false claims; and,
- c. conspired to submit false claims and statements in support of claims.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 17 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 17.

18. Many of the allegations contained herein, particularly those regarding collusive meetings and communications between Defendants and their co-conspirators, are based upon the personal knowledge of the Plaintiff/Relator, William G. Burch. Additionally, these allegations are further corroborated by recorded conversations that took place between Mr. Burch and Defendants' representatives who participated in and furthered the conspiracy, and statements made under oath by other individuals with personal knowledge of the conspiracy.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that any of their representatives participated in or furthered any conspiracy. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 18, and on that basis, deny them.

INDUSTRY BACKGROUND

Automotive Filter Products

37. Nearly every car and light truck sold in the United States, excluding vehicles that are solely electric, uses filters to keep engines, fuel, and other hydraulic systems free from particulate contamination. Most vehicles contain three or more filters that must be replaced at regular intervals. While filter technology and the range of filter products have changed over time, the primary filters categories remain the same: oil, air, and fuel.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit the allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 37. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 37, and on that basis, deny them.

38. Oil filters clean the oil circulating through an engine by picking up tiny contaminants, such as metal, carbon, rust and dirt particles that can be abrasive and hinder efficient operation of engine parts. Oil filtration in engines is essential for enhancing a vehicle's longevity and performance.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit the allegations in paragraph 38.

39. Air filters trap air particles that mix with fuel and circulate into the engine. The air filter's body is typically made of metal or heat-resistant plastic. Most fuel-injected vehicles use a pleated paper filter element in the form of a flat panel, while older, carburetor vehicles use radial air filters made of similar materials.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit the allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 39. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 39, and on that basis, deny them.

40. Fuel filters screen out dirt and rust particles, improving a vehicle's performance by enabling the fuel to burn more efficiently.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit the allegations in paragraph 40.

The Distribution Channels for Filters

41. Defendants primarily sell Filters through two separate channels: (i) Original Equipment Manufacturers ("OEMs") and (ii) aftermarket sellers of replacement filters ("Aftermarket Sellers").

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator sold Filters to original equipment manufacturers and to customers for use in the aftermarket. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 41, and on that basis, deny them.

42. OEMs purchase automotive filters for installation into new vehicles during the production process.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 42, and on that basis, deny them.

43. Aftermarket Sellers purchase Filters directly from Defendants for wholesale or retail sale to the public, either (i) in connection with professional services rendered to an indirect (“Do it For Me”) purchaser (for example, an oil filter sold to a customer as part of an oil change) or (ii) for individuals (known as “Do it Yourself” purchasers) who replace their own filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator sold Filters for use in the aftermarket to customers who sell Filters in connection with professional services, and to customers who sell Filters to individuals. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 43, and on that basis, deny them.

44. Aftermarket Sellers include, but are not limited to, traditional warehouse (wholesale) distributors, jobbers, automotive parts and mass merchandising retailers, and direct/private label purchasers. Sales to traditional distributors and automotive parts retailers account for almost seventy percent of aftermarket automotive filter revenues. Defendants sell and market Filters through common distribution channels. And, Defendants control 90 percent of the entire market for Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that the entities described in the first sentence of paragraph 44 are typically considered “Aftermarket Sellers.” ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 44, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 47, and on that basis, deny them.

48. Filters are fungible products. Most manufacturers generally produce each type of Filter. Brand loyalty for Filters is limited. And, in addition to manufacturing their own brand filters, the largest filter manufacturers also make filters that are sold under well-known brand-names, such as Wal-Mart, Sears, AC Delco, and Mobil 1, just to name a few. While the filter business includes numerous brands, only a handful of manufacturers who [sic] actually make the filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in the first three sentences of paragraph 48. ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator manufactured private label Filters for certain customers. Specifically, each type of Filter (i.e., oil, air and fuel) is interchangeable with the same type of Filter produced by any other manufacturer.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 49 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 49.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 52, and on that basis, deny them.

53. Purolator and Honeywell’s FRAM® are the most well-known Filters brands. Wix, while not having as strong a brand name, manufactures, among other things, private label Filters for NAPA Auto Parts and Carquest Auto Parts. Wix is also the number one filter supplier for NASCAR. Champion also focuses on private label manufacturing. Champion manufactures such private label Filters as Mobil 1, Valvoline, STP, Mighty and Firestone.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 53, and on that basis, deny them.

In 2000, Arvin Industries merged with Meritor Automotive to become ArvinMeritor, Inc. And, in 2006 ArvinMeritor sold Purolator to Bosch and Mann+Hummel.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that in 1999 Arvin Industries, Inc. purchased Purolator from Mark IV Industries, Inc., and that in 2000, Arvin Industries, Inc. merged with Meritor Automotive, Inc. to become ArvinMeritor Inc. ArvinMeritor and Purolator state that in 2006 ArvinMeritor sold certain assets of Purolator to Filters North America LLC. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 54, and on that basis, deny them.

55. While the Filters industry has experienced a wave of consolidation, there have been no significant new entrants into the market.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 55.

56. The small number of companies controlling the Filters aftermarket is conducive to cartel behavior, allowing Defendants and their co-conspirators to coordinate the conduct, while making it hard for customers to avoid the effects of collusive behavior.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 56.

DEFENDANTS' ANTITRUST CONSPIRACY

Defendants' Unlawfully Conspire to Fix Prices

60. Throughout the Time Period, and in furtherance of their conspiracy, Defendants and their co-conspirators engaged in numerous unlawful anticompetitive activities, including, but not limited to:

- b. Engaging in discussions and communications between the Filter manufacturers via meetings, conferences, conventions, in the United States and elsewhere, and by telephone, facsimile, and electronic mail regarding the sale of Filters;

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 62 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 62.

63. On or about February 26, 1999, Arvin Industries acquired Purolator. Marlen Silverii, an Arvin Industries Senior Vice President (and formerly employed by Purolator) was instrumental in completing the acquisition.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that in or about February 1999 Arvin Industries, Inc. acquired Purolator, and that Marlen Silverii participated in the acquisition. ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that at the time of the acquisition, Marlen Silverii held the title of Vice President, and that prior to 1996 he was employed by the entity that operated under the Purolator name. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 63.

64. At the time that Arvin Industries acquired Purolator, Mr. Burch was a National Accounts Manager at Purolator.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that at the time Arvin Industries, Inc. acquired Purolator, Mr. Burch held the title of National Accounts Sales Manager at Purolator.

65. Shortly after that acquisition (in or around March 1999), Mr. Silverii met with certain Purolator senior employees, including Mr. Burch, to discuss Purolator's profit margins, which, in the view of Arvin Industries' executives, were too low.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that in or about March 1999, Mr. Silverii met with certain Purolator employees to discuss pricing of Purolator's Filters. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 65.

66. During the meeting, Mr. Silverii explained that, to increase Filters' profit margins, Arvin Industries' executives wanted to implement a Filters price-increase. But, to do so successfully and without losing market share or business, Mr. Silverii explained that Purolator would need all Defendants to agree to jointly raise their prices together.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that in or about March 1999, Mr. Silverii met with certain Purolator employees to discuss pricing of Purolator's Filters. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 66.

67. Mr. Silverii told the assembled Purolator senior personnel to contact their counterparts (the other Defendants) to obtain each Defendant's agreement to implement a coordinated, industry-wide Filters price-increase.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 67.

68. A number of Purolator's senior personnel who attended the meeting complied with Mr. Silverii's directive. These individuals contacted and communicated with their counterparts regarding coordinated industry-wide price-increase for Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 68.

69. As part of their collusive agreement to increase Filters prices, Defendants met and discussed plans, and otherwise communicated with each other, to coordinate the timing, amount, and purported false pretexts, that they would jointly agree to as the justification for planned, coordinated, and conspired price increases.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 69 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 69.

71. For example, at the JLAF Show, Mr. Silverii and at least one other senior Purolator employee met with a senior employee at Honeywell and discussed increasing Filters prices.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 71.

72. A fellow Purolator employee told Mr. Burch that Purolator had spoken with Honeywell at the JLAF Show in Nashville and told them to raise prices. That same Purolator employee also told Mr. Burch that “FRAM knows we’re going up.” (As noted above, Fram filters are manufactured by Honeywell.)

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in the first two sentences of paragraph 72. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 72, and on that basis, deny them.

74. On or about June 28, 1999, Mr. Silverii directed Larry Curtis (Vice President of Sales at Purolator) to fax Brad Hayes (Honeywell) a copy of a letter that Purolator intended to send to its customers. The letter informed Purolator's customers of an impending price-increase on all Purolator Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Larry Curtis was employed by Purolator in 1999. ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator announced a price increase on filter products, to become effective on August 15, 1999, to its customers in a letter dated June 21, 1999, and state that the letter speaks for itself. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 74.

75. Mr. Curtis falsely back-dated this price-increase letter to appear as if it had been written earlier. (In fact, he wrote the letter approximately a week after the date he put on it.) And, Purolator actually sent this price-increase letter to its customers several weeks after coordinating the price-increase with Honeywell.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 75.

76. The letter also provided a false pretext or excuse that the conspirators would give for their planned and conspired price-increase: the Defendants would claim that the increase in Filter prices was directly and solely attributed to price increases in cost for labor, health care, freight, and raw materials. In truth, the price-increase was due to price fixing, and was the result of a conspiracy among various Defendants to raise the price for Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 76.

77. On June 28, 1999, pursuant to Mr. Silverii's directive, Larry Curtis sent the draft price-increase letter by fax to his counterpart at Honeywell, Brad Hayes. The fax recipient at Honeywell, Brad Hayes, was the person whom Mr. Silverii had already met with, secretly, at the JLA Show.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 77.

78. Notably, as of June 28, 1999, Purolator had not yet sent the price-increase letter to any of its customers. The customer letter would not go out for several weeks.

79. Recorded telephone conversations (from June 1999) further evidence the Defendants' collusive price-fixing activity during this time period.

80. Purolator's actual customer price-increase letter (dated "July 7, 1999," but sent to its customers at a subsequent date) was virtually identical to the draft letter Purolator had already shared with Honeywell a few weeks earlier.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator provided pricing information on Filters, to become effective on August 15, 1999, to its customers in a letter dated July 7, 1999 and state that the letter speaks for itself. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 80.

81. Significantly, both letters contained the same exact price percentage increase, and the same price-increase effective date.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator state that the documents speak for themselves. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 81.

82. Shortly after Purolator sent its price-increase letter pursuant to the unlawful agreement, the other Defendants followed Purolator's lead and also implemented very similar Filters price increases.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations regarding price increases by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 82.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 84, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 85, and on that basis, deny them.

86. At that meeting, Mr. Evans told Champion's senior employees that Champion would "lead the way" with another Filters price increase.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 86, and on that basis, deny them.

87. Mr. Evans advised those assembled that Champion needed to coordinate the price-increase with Defendants to ensure the continued success of the conspiracy. For example, it was critical to Champion that its Filter price increase not detrimentally affect its market share. For this reason, Mr. Evans directed Champion's senior employees to make frequent telephone calls to Defendants to discuss coordinated pricing and to conspire to reach an agreement about the coordinated price-increase.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 87, and on that basis, deny them.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 88, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator sent a letter dated April 1, 2004 to its customers announcing a potential price increase on certain Filter products, and a letter dated April 15, 2004 to its customers announcing a price increase on certain Filter products to be effective on May 15, 2004. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 90 regarding price increases by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 90.

91. Champion, in September 2004, then led Defendants' effort to implement a second 2004 coordinated Filters price-increase, in furtherance of their conspiracy.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 94 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 94.

95. In the words of one Champion employee, the “primary goal over the next day and a half [at the Convention] is to get everybody to get out there, and the message is gonna be that we’re going up again, and when.” This employee clarified: “That’s basically our message to everybody.”

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 95, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 101 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 101.

102. At or around the same time, one of Champion's largest private-label customers questioned the need for another price-increase in 2004. This customer also questioned Champion's explanation that rising steel prices necessitated the price-increase. The customer requested that Champion provide it with an additional explanation justifying the price-increase.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 102, and on that basis, deny them.

103. This customer request for an explanation created a serious dilemma for Champion. A few months earlier, Champion had introduced a new oil filter called eCore, twelve models of which fit 75% of the cars on the road. The eCore filter was made partly out of fabric instead of steel. Thus, Champion's oil filter input costs had in fact decreased by approximately 20% because of its diminished need for raw steel in the manufacture of eCore oil filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 103, and on that basis, deny them.

104. Instead of providing its customer with its eCore input prices, Champion gave its customer a Purolator spreadsheet for Purolator's outdated input costs. Champion's spreadsheet, falsely represented Purolator's costs as its own. The spreadsheet satisfied the complaining customer. But more importantly, the spreadsheet concealed the true reason for Champion's price increase – the Defendants' unlawful price-fixing agreement, and not increasing steel prices that Champion would have to pay.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 104, and on that basis, deny them.

109. At the time, Honeywell and Purolator shared Shell's Light Vehicle Aftermarket Filter business. In truth, Champion had already secretly agreed with Purolator and Honeywell to bid high so that they could keep the business at an inflated price.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator sold Filters to Shell in or around June 2003. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 109 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 112, and on that basis, deny them.

113. During the Time Period, pursuant to, and in furtherance of, their unlawful agreement, Defendants fixed, raised, maintained and/or stabilized prices and allocated customers for Filters in the United States. In so doing, Defendants acted unlawfully to foreclose price competition and to maintain artificially high prices for the Filters they sold in the United States.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 113 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 113.

114. Similarly, Defendants' unlawful conduct during the Time Period in allocating customers amongst themselves was for the sole purpose of foreclosing price competition to maintain artificially high prices for the Filters they sold in the United States.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 114 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 114.

115. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conspiracy, the United States and the States have been forced to pay super competitive and artificially inflated prices for Defendants' Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 115 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 115.

116. Throughout the Time Period, Defendants affirmatively concealed the conspiracy from the United States and the States by, among other things, engaging in secret meetings and communications in furtherance of the conspiracy, and by falsely certifying to the United States and the States that they were not engaged in price-fixing activity.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 116 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 116.

117. Because of such fraudulent concealment and the inherently self-concealing nature of this conspiracy, the United States and the States could not have discovered, through reasonable due diligence, and did not discover, the existence of this conspiracy.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 117.

118. As a result of the active-and-ongoing concealment of the conspiracy by Defendants and their co-conspirators, all applicable statutes of limitation are tolled.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 118 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 118.

Defendants' Conduct Violates the Sherman Act

119. Defendants' conspiratorial conduct constitutes horizontal price-fixing that violates Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 119 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 119.

120. This conspiracy is illegal per se, and consists of a continuing, unlawful understanding and concert of action among Defendants to coordinate their Filters prices. As a direct and proximate result, both direct and indirect purchasers of have been injured in their business and property, in an amount not presently known, in that they paid more for Filters than they otherwise would have paid in the absence of Defendants' unlawful conduct. (As discussed below, the United States and the States also have been injured by of the Defendants' illegal price-fixing conspiracy).

ANSWER: The allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 120 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 120. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 120 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 120.

121. In addition to this action, several groups of purchasers have filed private actions, in the form of class actions, in which these classes seek to recover their damages resulting from Defendants' conduct. On November 26, 2008, for example, a group of direct purchasers filed their Consolidated Amended Complaint. Defendants moved to dismiss that complaint, and on November 5, 2009, the Court denied that motion.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator state that the docket in In re: Aftermarket Filters Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1957 is a public record and that the filings and decisions in this action speak for themselves. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny any remaining allegations in paragraph 121.

FALSE CLAIMS

122. During the Time Period, the United States spent many millions of dollars on Filters. According to the OMB Watch, a public watch dog organization that monitors the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB"), between 2000 and 2009, the United States spent more than $40 million dollars on engine, air, and oil filters and cleaners for non-aircraft vehicles. In 2004 alone, OMB Watch estimated that the United States spent almost $6 million on engine air and oil filters, strainers, and cleaners, for non-aircraft use.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 122, and on that basis, deny them.

123. Significant as they are, however, these numbers most likely underestimate – perhaps substantially – the amount the federal government paid for Filters. The reason for this is that the United States’ contract coding system only captures the primary product sold as a result of the contract. Thus, there are likely to be many millions of dollars worth of additional Filters purchases that are not reflected in the foregoing numbers.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 123, and on that basis, deny them.

124. Defendants manufactured well over 90 percent of the Filters on the market. In addition to Filters sold under Defendants’ own brand-names, Defendants also provided Filters to private brands such as Napa, CarQuest, and Firestone, among others.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 124, and on that basis, deny them.

125. Regardless of brand name (or distributor), the majority of the Filters the United States and the States purchased during the time Period were undoubtedly manufactured by Defendants.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 125, and on that basis, deny them.

126. Table 1 lists Filters by National Stock Number (“NSN”) and Part Number. It represents a portion of the Filters manufactured by Defendants (the most popular models) and sold to the United States during the Time Period.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that the NSNs identified as related to ArvinMeritor are light duty Filters. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 126, and on that basis, deny them.

127. Table 2 shows particular, representative claims the United States paid during the Time Period for the Filters listed in Table 1.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 127, and on that basis, deny them.

128. Attached as Exhibit A, are spreadsheets that show additional claims submitted to the United States by NSN and award date.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 128, and on that basis, deny them.

129. Neither Table 2 nor Exhibit A is anywhere close to a complete list, because the United States paid thousands of claims for Filters from the Defendants during the Time Period.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 129, and on that basis, deny them.

130. The United States and the States purchased Filters from Defendants both directly through contracts with individual Defendants, and through distributors.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that the United States and the States purchased Filters directly from ArvinMeritor or Purolator. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 130, and on that basis, deny them.

131. With regard to the latter, in some instances, the United States or the States contracted with a Filters' distributor to purchase a large quantity of Filters. Those distributors would then purchase Filters from the Defendants and provide them to the United States or the States.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 131, and on that basis, deny them.

132. Whether the United States or the States purchased Filters via a direct contract with an individual Defendant or through a distributor, the result was the same: The United States and the States paid money to purchase Defendants' Filters at inflated prices, and would not have purchased the Filters at all, at any price, had the Defendants disclosed their price fixing.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 132 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 132.

133. Thus, during the Time Period, every time the United States or the States paid for Defendants' Filters, there was a false and fraudulent claim – sometimes for more than one reason. This was true whether the Defendants themselves submitted the contract or claim, or whether it was submitted by a distributor or subsidiary that merely supplied Defendants' Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 133 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 133.

Defendants Submitted False Claims and Caused Others to Submit False Claims

134. Each time Defendants directly made a claim for payment under a contract for Filters, they submitted or caused to be submitted a false claim. Defendants conspired to fix and artificially inflate the prices of Filters during the Time Period.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 134 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 134.

135. When Defendants made a direct claim on the United States or the States for payment under a Filters contract, that claim was false. The United States and the States relied on the accuracy of Defendants' prices, and obviously price is always a material term of any contract. The prices that the United States and States paid for the Filters were inflated were artificially inflated [sic] as a result of the Defendants' price-fixing conspiracy.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 135 regarding actions by other Defendants and entities, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 135.

136. Moreover, if the United States and States had known the truth – that Defendants conspired to fix prices and bid – they never would have purchased the Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 136 regarding actions by other Defendants and entities, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 136.

137. Similarly, when the United States or the State purchased Filters from a subsidiary or distributor for one of the Defendants, the Defendants themselves also submitted and/or caused false claims to be submitted.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 137 regarding actions by other Defendants and entities, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 137.

138. For example, during the Time Period, U.S. Motor Works contracted to provide the United States with spare vehicle parts that included, among other things, Filters. U.S. Motor Works distributed many brand name parts, including Wix and Cummins. Because Defendants controlled substantially more than 90 percent of the Filters market during the Time Period, in virtually all instances the Defendants actually manufactured and provided the requisite Filters, and they profited from the sale of the Filters at inflated prices regardless of whether the claim was submitted directly by the Defendant, or through an intermediary like a distributor (and caused to be distributed by or more or the Defendants).

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that they participated in or profited from any coordinated effort to increase Filters prices. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 138, and on that basis, deny them.

139. As another example, on or about September 28, 2007, the United States [sic] sold $359,681.38 worth of Filters to the United States pursuant to Contract No. SPM7MX-07-D9005) with Facet USA, Inc. ("Facet USA"), which allowed for the purchase of as much as $24 million worth of Filters over time.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 139, and on that basis, deny them.

140. Like other government contracts, this one identified the required part by NSN. The NSN identifies the part generically and does not refer to a particular brand. Thus, where multiple companies make the same part under different brand names, the United States might accept any number of the brand names as long as it is the correct part. Here, the contract identifies a number of Filters by NSN. Under each NSN, the contract provides an acceptable list of sources/manufacturers and identifies them by a Commercial and Governmental Entity Code ("Cage Code"), the code assigned to companies that register with United States to compete for government business.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 140, and on that basis, deny them.

141. The contract lists the following Defendants and their Cage Codes as acceptable sources for the Filters: Cummins, Wix, Baldwin, Luber-Finer (i.e., Champion), and ArvinMeritor. The contract also lists Quaker State Oil Refining Corp. as an acceptable source, and during the Time Period, Honeywell and ArvinMeritor manufactured and provided Filters to Quaker State. Thus, under the contract, Facet USA was allowed to, and did, provide the United States with Filters from each of these Defendants at various times. Because Filters are largely a fungible product, it matters little to the United States which Filters it receives so long as they come from one of the approved companies. And, that list of approved companies was comprised virtually exclusively of the Defendants and filter brands they manufactured.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that Filters are largely a fungible product. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 141, and on that basis, deny them.

142. Each time Facet USA provided Filters to the United States under the contract it would have had to be providing the Defendants' products. Because the price of Defendants' Filters was inflated, any negotiations between Facet and the United States were predicated on an inflated market price. Thus, the Defendants ultimately caused Facet USA to submit inflated, false, and fraudulent claims to the United States. (Moreover, these Filters would not have been acceptable at all to the United States irrespective of the inflated price had the United States known of the price fixing conspiracy by the Defendants).

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that Purolator's prices on Filters were inflated. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 142, and on that basis, deny them.

Defendants Made False Certifications and Representations in Support of Claims

143. Defendants also submitted false certifications and representations in support of false and fraudulent claims. To compete for and receive contracts to supply the government with Filters, and to maintain and sustain those contracts after they were obtained, Defendants represented in contracts and certifications (as required by governmental regulations) that their prices were not the result of collusive activity, including any price-fixing conspiracy.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 143 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 143.

144. Contracts with the United States are governed by a comprehensive set of statutes and regulations. One of the primary goals of these laws is to ensure robust competition, which results in the United States (and all of its agencies or departments) receiving fair prices for goods. The United States Code mandates that agency heads "obtain full and open competition through the use of competitive procedures in accordance with the requirements of the . . . Federal Acquisition Regulation." See 10 U.S.C. § 2304; 41 U.S.C. § 253 (same); 48 C.F.R. § 6.101 (requiring government officials to use policies that "promote and provide for full and open competition . . .").

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 144 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 144.

145. The Federal Acquisition Regulations or “FAR” require all “prospective contractors” to complete a number of steps before they can be awarded a government contract or provide their products to the government.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 145 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 145.

146. During the Time Period, all Defendants had registered through CCR and received a Cage Code. Defendants operated under a variety of Cage Codes during the Time Period. And, when a given Defendant’s name or corporate affiliation changed, its Cage Code may have also changed. The following chart lists examples of Cage Codes for Defendants during the Time Period:

Defendant	Current Cage Code
Champion	50284
Purolator	57108
ArvinMeritor	3QYY9
Honeywell	73370
Wix	79396
Affinia	54M54
Cummins	4NUM0
Baldwin	12658
Donaldson	18265

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that ArvinMeritor and Purolator each registered through CCR and received a Cage Code. ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that the codes listed in paragraph 146 are Cage Codes that were assigned for ArvinMeritor and Purolator but state that the Cage Code listed for Purolator is obsolete. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 146, and on that basis, deny them.

147. In addition, all prospective vendors must make certain representations and certifications when they contract with the government and periodically thereafter. For instance, the Code of Federal Regulations requires “prospective contractors to update their representations and certifications annually to ensure they are kept current, accurate and complete. See C.F.R. § 4.1201(b)(1) (At the beginning of the Time Period, vendors were required to submit these representations and certifications prior to receipt of any individual larger purchase contract award. Since about January 1, 2005, vendors have been allowed to complete their representations and certifications online using the Online Representations and Certifications Application (“ORCA”)).

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 147 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 147.

148. The representations and certifications remain valid for a year, and any time during that year the relevant vendor may compete for government business. After implementation of ORCA, each time a vendor signs a solicitation it certifies that its representations and certifications are current, accurate, and complete.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 148 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 148.

149. ORCA contains an explicit representation and certification of an “Independent Price Determination.” The certification states, among other things, that:

- ◆ the prices contained in a bid or proposal “have been arrived at independently, without, for the purpose of restricting competition, any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other offeror or competitor relating to (i) those prices, (ii) the intention to submit an offer, or (iii) the methods or factors used to calculate the prices offered”; and
- ◆ the vendors have not done anything to “induce any other concern to submit or not submit and offer for the purpose of restricting competition.”

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 149 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 149.

150. During the Time Period, each time a Defendant signed such certification it falsely certified that it was not price-fixing. Likewise, because the same certification language also is in all government solicitations, any time any Defendant applied for a contract and signed a solicitation or submitted a proposal in response to a solicitation it also falsely certified that it engaged in anti-competitive activities, including pricing-fixing.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 150 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 150.

151. Even those Defendants, who solely sold their Filters to the United States through a distributor or subsidiary, were required to be register through CCR and complete the ORCA certifications. There is a reason for this: If any Defendant did not register through CCR and complete the ORCA certifications, they could not sell their products to the United States, even through a distributor.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 151 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 151.

152. Notably, solicitations all also contain an explicit warning that “[b]idders must provide full, accurate, and complete information as required by this solicitation . . .” and that there is a criminal penalty for making false statements in a bid. (The States have similar statutory provisions.)

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 152 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 152.

153. To the extent that Defendants did not explicitly make such certifications with regard to any given contract or claim, they were nonetheless implicitly certifying to both the United States and the States that they were not engaged in a price-fixing.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 153 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the allegations in paragraph 153.

154. Neither the United States nor the States would knowingly purchase products from Defendants at inflated prices resulting from violation of the federal and state antitrust laws.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 154, and on that basis, deny them.

155. Defendants were engaged in a conspiracy to fix the prices of Filters in violation of the federal antitrust laws. As a result, contrary to their ORCA certifications, their prices were not “independent,” or the product of full and fair competition.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 155 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 155 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 155.

156. Thus, each time any Defendant was awarded a contract to supply the United States or the States with Filters, that Defendant had misrepresented that its prices were the product of competition not collusion.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 156 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 156 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 156.

157. Similarly, if Defendants products appeared as acceptable products under a government contract awarded to a distributor or subsidiary of the Defendants (e.g. Contract No. No. SPM7MX-07-D-9005, referenced herein), then that Defendant had made a false certification and representation that caused the United States to pay a false claim.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 157 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 157 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 157.

158. Such terms were material terms of every contract between the United States and the States [sic], and the United States and the States would not have entered the contracts for Filters had they known of the Defendants [sic] antitrust conspiracy.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 158 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 158 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 158.

159. Defendants' false certifications were false statements that caused the United States and the States to pay fraudulent claims.

ANSWER: The allegations in paragraph 159 are legal conclusions to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is required, ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 159 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 159.

Evidence of Defendants' False Claims

160. A complete list of contracts between Defendants and the United States, and Defendants' claims for payment to the United States and the States, is uniquely within the possession of Defendants. Although Defendants manufactured more than 90 percent of the Filters during the Time Period, in many instances, the United States and the States purchased the Filters from a variety of distributors, and Defendants manufactured and distributed Filters under a variety of private brand names. The distribution chain is complex.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that they are in possession of a complete list of contracts between Defendants and the United States. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 160, and on that basis, deny them.

161. The following non-exclusive list of contracts and claims provides strong evidence that all Defendants: (a) sold filters to the United States and the States; (b) made or caused others to make false claims to the United States and the States; and (c) made false representations or certifications in support of claims for payment to the United States and the States.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 161 regarding actions by other Defendants, and on that basis, deny them. ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 161.

Evidence of Defendant Donaldson's False Claims

162. During the Time Period, Donaldson sold Filters to the United States and the States both directly and through subsidiaries and distributors. Donaldson's primary contact for government related business is Robyn Barlarge.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 162, and on that basis, deny them.

163. Donaldson was registered with the United States through the CCR systems during the Time Period, had a Cage Code, and regularly certified to the United States that its prices were independent.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 163, and on that basis, deny them.

164. Donaldson also regularly made similar certifications to the States, either explicitly or implicitly.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 164, and on that basis, deny them.

165. Donaldson made false claims for payment, caused others to make false claims for payment, and conspired to violate the FCA and parallel laws of the States. The States and the United States paid for Donaldson Filters in reliance on Donaldson's false certifications and false claims.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 165, and on that basis, deny them.

166. The following is a non-exclusive list of examples of contracts the United States entered with Donaldson during the Time Period:

228. Cummins's primary contact for government related business is Russ Wong. Cummins was registered with the United States through the CCR systems during the Time Period, had a Cage Code, and regularly certified to the United States that its prices were independent. Cummins also regularly made similar certifications to the States, either explicitly or implicitly.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 228, and on that basis, deny them.

229. Cummins made false claims for payment, caused others to make false claims for payment, and conspired to violate the FCA and parallel laws of the States. The States and the United States paid for Cummins Filters in reliance on Cummins's false certifications and false claims.

233. Under this and other contracts, the United States purchased Cummins Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 233, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 234, and on that basis, deny them.

235. Cummins made many claims for payment to the United States and the States in addition to those claims listed above, and Cummins conspired with the other Defendants to violate the FCA. Each time Cummins made a claim for payment under any Filters contract, it violated the FCA because: (a) it was engaged in a long-running price-fixing conspiracy, contrary to its representations and certifications, and (b) the prices of its Filters were falsely inflated.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that they conspired with Cummins or any other Defendant. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 235, and on that basis, deny them.

236. Similarly, each time a subsidiary of or a distributor for Cummins submitted claims for payment to the United States or the States, Cummins violated the FCA because: (a) it was engaged in a long-running price-fixing conspiracy, contrary to its representations and certifications, and (b) the prices of its Filters were falsely inflated. If the United States or the States had been aware of this it would not have paid Cummins's false claims or paid the claims of subsidiaries of and distributors for Cummins.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 236, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 237, and on that basis, deny them.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 239, and on that basis, deny them.

240. As noted under Contract No. SPM7MX-07-D-9005, Facet USA agreed to provide the United States with Filters. Most if not all of the Filters that Facet USA provided to the United States were manufactured by Defendants Cummins, Wix, Baldwin, Champion, and ArvinMeritor. Thus, United States purchased Baldwin Filters during the Time Period.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that ArvinMeritor manufactures Filters. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 205, and on that basis, deny them.

241. Moreover, the following is one example of a contract the United States entered with Baldwin during the Time Period. On or about September 30, 2008, the United States entered a year-long contract with Jasmin Defense Depot (“Jasmin”) to provide Filters.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 244, and on that basis, deny them.

245. These claims for payment were false as a result of Baldwin's participation in the antitrust conspiracy.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 245, and on that basis, deny them.

246. First, the United States chose Baldwin based on its knowledge that it was an approved manufacturer that had registered with the United States and signed the annual ORCA representations, i.e. represented that it was not colluding to fix prices. Had Baldwin not fulfilled its annual ORCA obligations, the United States would not have sought to purchase Baldwin Filters. Thus, Baldwin made a false certification in support of a claim for payment.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 246, and on that basis, deny them.

247. Second, the [sic] Baldwin's prices for Filters under the contract were inflated and false. Baldwin submitted its false and inflated prices to Diesel Equipment Inc. and then Jasmin, who in turn submitted the false prices to the United States for payment.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 247, and on that basis, deny them.

250. Each time Baldwin made a claim for payment under any Filters contract, it violated the FCA because: (a) it was engaged in a long-running price-fixing conspiracy, contrary to its representations and certifications, and (b) the prices of its Filters were falsely inflated.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 250, and on that basis, deny them.

251. Similarly, each time a subsidiary of or a distributor for Baldwin submitted claims for payment to the United States or the States, Baldwin violated the FCA because: (a) it was engaged in a long-running price-fixing conspiracy, contrary to its representations and certifications, and (b) the prices of its Filters were falsely inflated. If the United States or the States had been aware of this it would not have paid Baldwin's false claims or paid the claims of subsidiaries of and distributors for Baldwin.

ANSWER: ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 251, and on that basis, deny them.

The contract was effective between December 1, 2004 and November 30, 2009. (Prior to the entry of this contract, California entered similar contracts to purchase Defendants' Filters.) Under the foregoing contract, Defendants provided Filters to California through ATS. ATS submitted claims to California for payment, and California paid those claims. Each time this happened, Defendants had caused ATS to submit a false claim to California, because of the price-fixing conspiracy.

ArvinMeritor and Purolator admit that Purolator manufactured Purolator and Mighty branded Filters. ArvinMeritor and Purolator lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 252, and on that basis, deny them.

255. The State of New Hampshire entered a contract with Wix for Filters (contract number 8000056). The contract became effective in July 2009 and lasts until 2014. Each time New Hampshire submits an order, Wix delivers the Filters and submits an invoice. As explained above, all of these invoices were false as a result of the price-fixing conspiracy.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

ArvinMeritor and Purolator deny that Plaintiff is entitled to any relief.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

ArvinMeritor and Purolator reserve the right to assert other defenses as discovery proceeds. ArvinMeritor and Purolator assert the following defenses without assuming the burden of proof as to any fact, issue, or element of a cause of action where such burden properly rests upon Plaintiff:

First Defense

Plaintiff lacks standing to assert the alleged claims and/or to seek some or all of the requested relief as he and those he purports to represent did not purchase Filters from ArvinMeritor or Purolator.

Second Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that any federal, state, or other procedural or statutory requirements for their filing or maintenance have not been satisfied.

Third Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that this Court lacks jurisdiction over some or all of the claims because, among other reasons, the claims are based upon information which had been publicly disclosed.

Fourth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations because he knew or should have known of any alleged injury more than the statutorily-permissible number of years before filing the Complaint. Plaintiff knew or should have known of public statements concerning price increases and the state of the market. Plaintiff and/or those he purports to represent were aware of the price increase announcements and other public statements and, therefore, were on notice as to the alleged claims and failed to exercise reasonable diligence.

Fifth Defense

Plaintiff's delay in asserting the alleged claims has, among other considerations, allowed alleged damages to accumulate and made it burdensome to gather relevant evidence necessary to rebut Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff was aware of the price increases and the state of the market, and failed to exercise reasonable diligence. Plaintiff's claims are therefore barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches because he did not act with reasonable diligence in filing his claims.

Sixth Defense

Plaintiff's delay in asserting the alleged claims has, among other considerations, allowed alleged damages to accumulate, and made it burdensome to gather relevant evidence necessary to rebut Plaintiff's claims, thereby disadvantaging ArvinMeritor and Purolator. Plaintiff's claims are therefore barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of waiver and/or estoppel.

Seventh Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff's own acts bar him from recovering any damages as a relator in this action.

Eighth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff and/or those he purports to represent have sustained no injury in fact or any damages proximately caused by any act or omission of ArvinMeritor or Purolator.

Ninth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by his failure to mitigate damages, if any.

Tenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they would result in ArvinMeritor or Purolator paying damages to more than one claimant for the same alleged overcharge, because such multiple recoveries would violate rights guaranteed by the United States and various State Constitutions.

Eleventh Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that the claims are based on the laws of certain states where no events alleged took place or had an impact.

Twelfth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that they impermissibly seek retroactive punishment for alleged conduct that occurred prior to the enactment of the applicable statutes.

Thirteenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that enforcing plaintiff's claims would have an ex post facto effect against Defendants.

Fourteenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that the allegations for one or more claims contained in plaintiffs' amended complaint fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
